At Duncan Aviation, we recognize that members of the U.S. military are dedicated individuals who bring a unique set of experience and skills to our team. Many career skills, both hands-on and soft skills, gained during active duty transition effortlessly to a position with Duncan Aviation. Approximately 25% of our current workforce has served, or is currently serving, in a branch of the military.

Duncan Aviation, Inc. is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified candidates will receive consideration regardless of sex, race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, veteran status, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other characteristic protected by law.

SkillBridge

The Duncan Aviation Internship Program is an approved SkillBridge Program under the Department of Defense Instruction 1322.29. The program is an opportunity for transitioning service members to gain valuable civilian work experience through an internship during their last 6 months of service, for up to 180 days. The Program is open to all ranks and experience levels. SkillBridge participants are not eligible for compensation from Duncan Aviation, as they continue to receive military compensation and benefits as active-duty service members.

Goals:

This program is specifically designed to offer internships that result in the potential to transition to a full-time opportunity at the conclusion of the training.

Objectives:

Service members who complete the Intern program will be highly-trained, capable, future employees that align to the specific needs of the organization.

Outcome:

Offer transitioning service member a rewarding opportunity to join the Duncan Aviation team.

Employee Resource Group

Mission:

We are a dedicated community of veterans focused on connecting, sharing experiences and supporting each other in the transition from military to civilian work life. We advocate for veteran specific needs, as well help recruit and facilitate career development within Duncan Aviation ultimately fostering a sense of belonging for all.
